Report on "National Unity Day" conducted by MITS-NSS Team

31 October 2014

Submitted by Dr. K. Srinivasulu

MITS NSS Unit organized 'National Unity Day' in a grand manner in the streets of Angallu Grama Panchayati on 31 October 2014. On the occasion of the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhai Patel, MITS NSS volunteers emphasized that every citizen of India should take up the responsibility of national unity, national integrity and nation's security. Dr. C. Yuvaraj, Principal of MITS, addressing the audience who formed human chain at the Angallu circle, said that Sardar Patel was one among the prominent leaders who strove for the independence of India and he contributed a lot for the preparation of Indian constitution. He was a man who faced criticism with great courage. He is a Personality well known for his able leadership. Principal reminded the gathering that society is greater than individual, state is greater than the society and nation is greater than the state. Hence every individual should honour and give due respect to the unity in diversity which leads to inculcation of harmonious relationship for the development of our state and the nation as a whole.

Dr. K. Srinivasulu, programme officer-NSS, said that Sardar Patel merged 554 independent dynasties in India after British left India and drove away the divisional problems in India. As a result of his efforts, every one of us is able to lead a happy, peaceful and prosperous life in our country today. More than after 60 years of independence, union government of India, giving due respect and recognition to Patel, declared his birthday as National Unity Day. PRO, SAO (A&P), Heads of various departments & staff, NSS volunteers and the students participated and chanted slogans to propagate the national unity, integrity and security.
